

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD, ENGLAND

Oxford Nuffield Medical Fellowship 2012/13

Applications are invited for an award under the Scheme for Oxford Nuffield Medical Fellowships in either a Clinical Medicine or Medical Science department of the University. This prestigious fellowship carries an allowance of £41 152 (plus any cost of living increases). This allowance is subject to United Kingdom tax. The trustees will pay direct, economy class return airfares for the appointee, his/her spouse and children up to the age of 18 years. A generous baggage allowance is also provided.

Applicants must have graduated from one of the universities listed below*. They should also either hold a medical qualification obtained in South Africa or the United Kingdom, or have appropriate research experience. There is no limit as to age or status.

The fellowship is tenable for two years in the first instance, with the possibility of an extension for a third year. Fellows are expected to return to South Africa at the end of the fellowship to continue to do work of a similar nature.

The award is available as from 1 October 2012 or, subject to consultation with the University's Medical Sciences Office and the department concerned, from such other later date as may be agreed. The next round of the Nuffield Medical Fellowship for South Africa will be in 2014/15.

*Participating Universities: University of Cape Town, University of Limpopo, University of KwaZulu-Natal, University of the Free State, University of Pretoria, University of Stellenbosch, University of the Witwatersrand.

Further information may be obtained from the Chairperson of the Selection Committee, Professor Dan Ncayiyana, at profdjn@gmail.com or from Ms Deborah Hendricks at Deborah.Hendricks@uct.ac.za. Details of the research interests of those departments in which the fellowship may be held, may be obtained from the Chairman of the Selection Committee and at website http://www.ox.ac.uk/divisions/medical\_sciences.html

Candidates must forward a letter describing their plans and proposed work at Oxford University (prior contact with suitable academic hosts at Oxford University is highly recommended), as well as a full curriculum vitae and the names of at least three contactable referees, to Ms Deborah Hendricks at Deborah.Hendricks@uct.ac.za by no later than 31 May 2012.
